

PEERE

Towards an interdisciplinary approach to peer review: theory, models and data

TD COST Action TD1306 PEERE

“New Frontiers of Peer Review”

October 14-15, 2014

Corvinus University of Budapest

The aim of this meeting is to review the state of the art of peer review in various domains, define available and missing links between theory, models and data and identify the main challenges for studying and improving peer review.

Invited speakers are:

Michèle Lamont (Harvard University)
Tom Jefferson (The Cochrane Collaboration)
Brad Wible (Science)

Participants include:

Aliaksandr Birukou (Springer-Verlag)
Fiona Hutton (Wiley-Blackwell)
Joris Van Rossum (Elsevier)

Towards an interdisciplinary approach to peer review

The Main Building, location of the plenary sessions

The location of the plenary sessions is Auditorium III in the Main Building of the Corvinus University of Budapest. The address is: Budapest, Fővám tér 8. Auditorium III is located on the ground floor. When you enter into the building from the Danube side, walk through the hall and you will find the auditorium on your right.

The New Building of the Corvinus University of Budapest

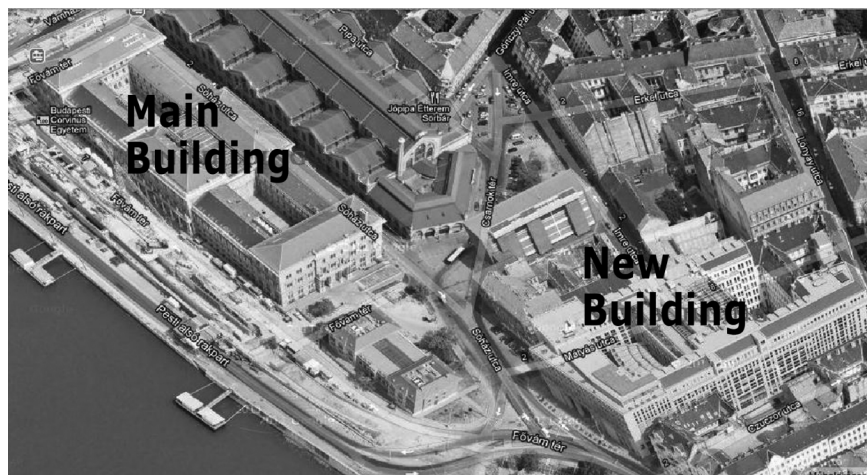

Two parallel sessions take place in the New Building. The address is: Közraktár utca 4-6. Room C510 is on the 5th floor and the Aquarium Room is on the 1st floor. You will need to enter the Main Library door in order to get into the Aquarium Room.

How to get from the Airport to the city center and back

Budapest has one airport: "Ferenc Liszt International Airport". All major airlines and low-cost airlines have this airport as a destination. To get into the city from the airport you could use a taxi (approx. 22 euro), a minibus (approx. 12 euro), or public transport. If you opt for public transport, take the 200E bus first till the end and then get on the blue metro line 3 from "Kőbánya Kispest" till "Kálvin tér" metro station (approx. 1.5+1.5 euro=3 euro). For further information about the airport and how to get into the city, please, consult this webpage: <http://bud.hu/>

How to find your way to the workshop location

The Corvinus University Campus has two large buildings. The older "Main Building" is at Fővám tér. The "New Building" is found to the south of the Main Building (and south of the Main Market Hall) at Közraktár utca 4-6.
